LAND ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Before the music, before the stage, before the first step was ever taken... there was the land.

A land of rivers that dance, trees that sway,
winds that hum a melody older than time.
A land that has long been home to the Anishinaabe, the Haudenosaunee and Chonnonton people.

This land is not just history; it is present.
It moves, breathes, it creates.
It has held the songs and dances of artists and storytellers for generations.

Today, as we gather in movement and artistry,
We acknowledge that our work does not stand alone.
It exists on land that was cared for, nurtured and defended by Indigenous communities, long before we gathered here.
We honor those who danced here first.

So, as we move and as we create,
May we dance with awareness.
May we listen with intention.
May we create with respect.

May we honor the past as we step into the future.

*Dancing to Mother Earth's Drums, by artist

MEET YOUR ADJUDICATORS

ALAN GOETTEN

Alan Goetten is a Brazilian dancer and choreographer with over 20 years of experience in the dance industry. Alan's passion for dance has been a driving force throughout his career, leading him to excel in various styles including jazz, hip-hop, Reggaeton and lyrical/contemporary.

Having studied and taught dance to students ranging from ages 6 to 18, as well as adult classes, Alan brings a wealth of knowledge and expertise to his teaching. He spent 15 years with his previous dance team in Brazil, competing in numerous dance conventions across the country and even internationally in the United States.

Alan's talent and dedication were further showcased when his dance team had the opportunity to choreograph and perform shows at Disneyland Orlando in 2016 and Disneyland Paris in 2019. These experiences not only highlighted his choreographic skills but also allowed him to share his passion for dance on a global stage.

In the past three years, Alan has been teaching in Canada, where he has made a significant impact on the local dance community. At a studio in Toronto, he has guided approximately 130 children through his dance programs, instilling in them not only technical skills but also a love for the art form.

Alan's ultimate goal is to inspire the younger generation and provide them with the tools they need to shine on stage. His commitment to sharing his knowledge and fostering a supportive learning environment reflects his dedication to nurturing the next generation of dancers.

Jocelyn has recently taken on the role of Program Coordinator for the Near North District School Board, overseeing the Specialist High Skills Major programs and Experiential Learning. Prior to this new educational endeavour, she taught dance, drama and vocal music for 28 years at the high school level in North Bay, Ontario.

Her passion for performance arts for all ages and for everyone has led her to accumulate over 30 years' experience working in community theatre with Dreamcoat Fantasy Theatre, Summer Challenge and Theatre OutReach On Stage (North Bay), more recently Huntsville Festival of the Arts (Huntsville) and South Shore Summer Theatre (Nova Scotia). Jocelyn continues to foster the educational aspects of performance arts by being an active member of the North Bay Entertainers Hall of Recognition, Educational Consultant for the Huntsville Festival of the Arts and a member of the board with the Huntsville Theatre Company.

Jocelyn's true passion is to help develop students who find the value in not only dancing and performing for others, but with others. As an original founding member of DanceFest she is so proud of all the participants have accomplished over the years of this program, but most importantly gives kudos to those that have kept this program, and the foundations on which it was built upon, alive and well for as many students as possible.
